

Across

- 2) The time signature commonly used is 4/4, also known as _____.
- 3) The dot adds _____ of the value of the note to itself.
- 5) A whole rest is equal to _____ beats.
- 6) The symbol placed before a note to raise it one half step.
- 7) A sign which signifies a measured silence.
- 9) A note that lasts for 1/2 beat.
- 10) It is the commonly used clef in music
- 11) It indicates how many notes and what kind of notes are in a measure

14) The symbol placed before a note to lower it by one half step.

Down

1) A note that lasts for 4 beats.

4) A series of five lines and four spaces where the notes are placed.

6) A note that lasts 1/4 beat.

8) A note that lasts for 1 beat

12) The vertical lines you see on a music staff which divides the staff into measures.

13) The sign placed on the music staff to indicate placement of the F below middle C.